

ARE YOU A WOMAN WANTING TO LEARN MORE ABOUT MONEY?

Women's Health In the North (WHIN) are currently seeking interest from women from the Indian subcontinent, Chinese community and Arabic, Afghani, Dari and Persian speaking backgrounds to participate in 'Let's Talk Money' workshops and become financial literacy educators.

Are you a woman who is:

- bilingual with proficiency in English and a community language/s?
- passionate about money and how finances work?
- interested in financial literacy skill development?
- interested in learning group facilitation skills and working with your community?
- interested in helping other women to learn about finances and money?

If you answered yes to these questions, then you are the one we are looking for.

We will need you to attend a series of workshops that will help you to:

- Understand local financial and banking services and systems (bank accounts, fees and statements).
- Increase your knowledge of your financial rights.
- Improve your budgeting skills.
- Understand how to make the most of your money and increase financial confidence.
- Learn about how to run groups and engage with your community, in your language to empower other women about finances and money.

YOU WILL BE PAID FOR YOUR TIME AND EFFORTS. THE 'LET'S TALK MONEY' TRAINING WORKSHOPS WILL BE HELD IN MAY 2017.

If you are interested in this project and are passionate about finances, educating other women, have good community connections and would like to earn an income for yourself then please contact

Manasi at WHIN on 9484 1666 or manasiw@whin.org.au

Applications close on: 5th of May 2017

The project is supported by:

